

15 Provocations from the Future

What will shape the future of our communities the next decade? Mark the top 3 “provocations” that you feel will most shape our youth by 2021, whether for good or bad.

- ___ 1. VUCA world: Will people turn to more religion for stabilization, in view of increasing volatility, uncertainty, complexity and ambiguity (VUCA)?
- ___ 2. Extreme Climate: Will the adverse impacts on society from climate change and its proposed solutions unite nations or re-ignite culture wars?
- ___ 3. Rich – Poor Gap: Will media images of global economic difference continue to foster social unrest, or will faith find innovative ways to level the playing field?
- ___ 4. Personal Empowerment: Will faith attract or repel engaged consumers, those who focus on self-empowerment, self-organization and personalization?
- ___ 5. Grassroots Economics: Will congregations be enriched or threatened by bottom-up consumer control expressed through vehicles like E-Bay, Craig’s List or MeetUp?
- ___ 6. Smart Networking: Will pervasive Internet connectivity create hybrid churches that form community focused on spiritual formation and social mission?
- ___ 7. Polarizing Extremes: Will moderating forces within society be able to engage self-righteous groups in their midst, and temper their narrow points of view?
- ___ 8. Integrated Spirituality: Will thinking religions and developmental psychology find a way to integrate faith & reason, belief & doubt, science & religion in a turbulent world?
- ___ 9. Health Insecurity: Will congregations address the health care crisis with mutual exchanges and faith-based solutions to close the gap between the healthy & unhealthy?
- ___ 10. Body Hacking: Will faiths embrace or chase away the ‘enhanced’—those who make informed choices regarding their body’s repair, augmentation & extension?
- ___ 11. Boomers Reinvent Aging: Will congregations meet the rising needs of aging Boomers, while Boomers themselves work longer & postpone retirement?
- ___ 12. Digital Youth: Will congregations be able to accommodate themselves to digital natives, or multi-tasking emerging generations?
- ___ 13. Urban Wilderness: Will faiths engage swelling ethnic populations in massive urban centers, which face infrastructure strain, unemployment, and public health crises?
- ___ 14. Digital Physical Blend: Will people be able to maintain their spiritual identity (maybe serenity) in the face of ‘always-on’ digital lifestyles?
- ___ 15. Dilemmas of Difference: Will clergy and laity engage others outside their own religious tradition, or just listen more exclusively to those within whom they agree.
